DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It appears that claim 17 discloses an additional "pair of mutually coupled inductors". As such, applicant needs to show the difference between "pair of mutually coupled inductors" in claim 17 and "pair of mutually coupled inductors" in independent claim 11. Should "pair of mutually coupled inductors" in claim 17 be called as "second pair of mutually coupled inductors". Also, see claim 7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6, 8-16, 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Zhou et al. (IEEE Journal of Solid-State Circuits, Vol. 33, No. 12, December 1998).

Regarding claims 1, 11, Zhou et al. (Fig. 3) disclose a differential amplifier comprising: an input stage (1) comprises a pair of transistors (M1, M2); a pair of mutually coupled inductors (T1/T2) that are arranged to bias the transistors (M1, M2) via their drains.

Regarding claims 2, 3, 12, 13, wherein the mutually coupled inductors (T2) comprise a transformer (T2) which has an inherent function as disclosed in claims 3, 13.

Regarding claims 4-6, 14-16, wherein T1 can be read as the mutually coupled inductors coupled to inputs via gates of transistors (M1, M2) and having the functions thereof.

Regarding claims 8-10, 18-20, wherein the mutually coupled inductors (T2) are coupled in series with a first terminal (drain) of each transistor (M1, M2); a mutually coupled inductors (T1) can be read as a second pair that are coupled in series with a second terminal (gate) of each transistor (M1, M2); and the functions as disclosed in claims 10, 20 would be inherent in the reference circuit.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Cassan et al. (IEEE Journal of Solid-State Circuits, Vol. 38, No. 3, March 2003).

Regarding claims 1, 11, Cassan et al. (Fig. 7) disclose a differential amplifier comprising: a pair of transistors (Q1); a pair of mutually coupled inductors (Ld) that are arranged to bias the transistors (Q1) via their drains.

Art Unit: 2817

Regarding claims 2, 3, 12, 13, wherein the mutually coupled inductors (LD) comprise a transformer (MD) which has an inherent function as disclosed in claims 3, 13.

Regarding claims 4-6, 14-16, wherein (LM1) can be read as the mutually coupled inductors coupled to inputs via gates of transistors (Q1) and having the functions thereof.

Regarding claims 7, 17, wherein the mutually coupled inductors (Ls) coupled in series with a source of each transistor (Q1).

Regarding claims 8-10, 18-20, wherein the mutually coupled inductors (LD) are coupled in series with a first terminal (drain) of each transistor (Q1); a mutually coupled inductors (LM1) can be read as a second pair that are coupled in series with a second terminal (gate) of each transistor (Q1); and the functions as disclosed in claims 10, 20 would be inherent in the reference circuit.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
